D.L. Moody tells the story of an Atlantic passenger who lay in his bunk in a storm deathly seasick. A cry of "Man overboard!" was heard. May God help the poor fellow," prayed the man, "there is nothing I can do." Then he thought, "At least I can put my lantern in the port hole;" which he did. The man was rescued, and recounting the story the next day he said, "I was going down in the darkness for the last time when someone put a light in a porthole. It shone on my hand, and a sailor in the lifeboat grabbed it and pulled me in."

Weakness is no excuse for our putting forth all the little strength we have, and who can tell how God will use it? People who are faithful in that which is least wear very radiant crowns. They are the people who are great in little tasks.

They are scrupulous in the ruddy roads of drudgery. They are those who, when trudging "through the valley of Baca (weeping), make it a well." They win triumphs amid small irritations. They are as loyal when wearing aprons in the kitchen as if they wore purple and fine linen in the visible presence of the King. They finish the obscurest bit of work as if it were to be displayed before an assembled Heaven by Him Who is the Lord of light and glory. Great souls are those who are faithful in that which is least.

According to Song of Solomon 2:15 it's the little foxes that spoil the vine. Then it is also true that it is the little things we do in faith that truly make a difference in the Kingdom of God. Zechariah tells us despise not the day of small beginnings. Satan comes with his lie and tells us, the little you have is insignificant and you might as well forget about using it for God. It's not how much you have that matters but what you do with what you have that counts. Jesus said the widow with her two mites put in more than all the rest. Her act of faith, putting the two mites in the box made all the difference and was not insignificant in the eyes of Jesus. There is a story in the bible of a master giving his servants talents. The first he gave five and in a little while turned that five into ten. The second was given two and in time they became four. The third was given one and he dug a hole and buried it. When the master returned and went to check on his investments, the first two were praised for the works of faith and obedience. The third was stripped of his one talent because he, in an act of unbelief, did nothing with what the master had given him. I believe he just thought it was to little to use to make a difference. I've heard it said many times from individuals through the years, I will start giving when I have a better job or I would pray if I were a preacher or evangelist. They were always looking at what little they had or could do and judged God accordingly. God never needs an overflow of spirituality, talent or finances to do His work. He always looks for those that lack all of that but have faith to use the little they have to change the world they live in. David with a stone and a sling, the widow with a little oil and flour, Gideon and his army of 300 against 150,000 enemies. I could go on and on. The whole point is no matter how little you have and how insignificant you think you are, you can make a difference. The Almighty hears your prayers and He always hears His people when they pray. Your giving big or small is always great in the eyes of God when given in faith and obedience to His Word. There are many links in a chain; all of them are needed to accomplish the task of pulling or lifting. No one is insignificant in the Kingdom of God. When we come to the understanding that it's not how much we have that can change the world but our faith in a God that can do great things with little if we would just believe and obey.

Thank you for your prayers and giving to this radio ministry. May the Lord keep you and your family in the days ahead.

In God We Still Trust

You place your hand on His Bible, when you swear to tell the Truth
 His name is on our greatest Monuments, and all our money too,
 And when we Pledge allegiance, there's no doubt where we stand,
 There is no separation, we're one Nation under Him.

Chorus:
 In God We Still Trust
 Here in America
 He's the one we turn to every time
 The goin' gets rough
 He is the source of all our Strength
 The One who watches over us
 Here in America
 In God We Still Trust

Now there are those among us, who want to push Him out,
 And erase His name from everything, this country's all about,
 From the Schoolhouse to the Courthouse, they're Silencing His Word,
 Now it's time for all Believers, to make our Voices heard

Words of the wise... Giving...

Giving reaches its climax in sacrifice, and sacrifice reaches its fullness in a joy that does not feel the sacrifice, for we read of superabounding joy side by side with superabounding giving. Sacrifice is worth nothing until it ceases to be a sacrifice, and giving never reaches its blossom until it runs over into the sacrifice of joy.
