November 2012

Yet, I Will Rejoice in the Lord, I will joy in the God of my Salvation.

As I write this newsletter our hearts and prayers go out to all those on the east coast. Peoples lives being turned upside down in a matter of hours. All of this is proof that Christ could return at any moment. The closer we get the more and more we feel like strangers in a foreign land.

Heaven is our home we are just passing through. The election is just a few days away and we, as Christians need to be diligent to vote according to the Word of God. (Hint: Abortion and same sex marriage are against God's Word.)

We want to thank all of you that have responded for Sharathon 2012 with pledges. We will be live Nov. 8th and 9th on the air from 6am – 6pm for Sharathon 2012. "Yet, I Will Rejoice in the Lord" is the theme for this years Sharathon. The Lord is the only one that will never leave us or forsake us. Thanks for praying and supporting KJIR 91.7 FM.

In 2 Timothy 4:7 Paul said, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." Some people get tired of fighting the devil. Matthew and Luke tells us Jesus was led of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil but the book of Mark says immediately the Spirit driveth Him (Jesus) into the wilderness to be tempted of satan. We must know that the Holy Ghost is not afraid of the devil and the Spirit of God in you will drive you to the fight. The battle is the Lord's and we are the temple that the Lord fights through. If you are getting tired just cast your cares on the Lord for He cares for you. We all have a race to run. There are no rewards for starting the race but only when we finish the course set before us, only then will we see Christ. The distance between start and finish is what knocks so many off the course set before them. If our eyes are on anything else but

Christ, finishing the course will not be possible. To finish is to see Christ continually before us. John tells us, when Christ shall appear, we shall be like Him; for we shall see Him as He is. Every person that has this hope in them purifieth themselves; even as He is pure. Keep your eyes on Jesus, not the times, trials, or tribulations but on Christ and you will Finish your course. To keep the faith is to just be a Christian no matter what comes your way; rain, shine, heaven or hell, rich or poor, sick or healthy, hungry or full, persecuted or loved. Paul said in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren, in weariness and painfulness, in watchings often in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness in all of this he never stopped being a Christian. Just keep being a true Christian. If you fall down with God's grace get up and start walking. Walk in the light as He is in the light and the Bible says we will have fellowship with one another and the Blood of Jesus Christ, His Son cleanseth us from all sin. Fight the good fight, finish your course and keep the faith. It won't be long till we see Jesus.

May God Bless you and keep you and your families in the days ahead.

Remember to listen to 91.7 FM locally or on the web at www.kjir.org for Sharathon 2012.

....Wise Words from the author....

I am convinced that no man knows the full struggle in the spirit world over a man's soul. Whatever kingdom you refer to, they both have a Master. (Matthew 6:24) To fall away from Christ, triggers His call to you and beckoning for you to return to Him.

Please know the same is true of the other Master, satan himself. When his power was broken from your life, he took his departure with vengeance in his future plans. This is a blow that many never truly digested or anticipated. It is called retaliation! Retaliation.....when satan returns with fury to gain you back.
