We read in Isaiah 6:1 In the year that King Uzziah died I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and His train filled the temple. History tells us that King Uzziah was the uncle of Isaiah. All of Isaiah's dreams, hopes and ambitions were wrapped up in his uncle the king and his kingdom. When his uncle died so did all of Isaiah's hopes and dreams for his life. You see Isaiah had a place in the king's kingdom, he was in a great political place and his future was set. But God had other plans for the young man. God let Isaiah's uncle, which was Isaiah's idol die. Now Isaiah had to find God for himself. We don't know how long it took for Isaiah to pray through to God but we know it was less than a year. When you read the book of Isaiah you read in the first 5 chapters, Isaiah writes woe is Israel woe to you. Then in Chapter 6, after he sees the Lord, he writes woe is me for

I am undone. Only after seeing the Lord are the eyes of Isaiah opened. Let's look at a couple of points in the story. If God was going to heal the land of Isaiah's day through politics, He God, would have left Isaiah in the kingdom and King Uzziah would not have died. Think about the time of Moses. Moses is in Pharaoh's house, Moses is next in line for the throne but God doesn't leave Moses there, He stirs his heart and moves him out to the people. If God was going to deliver Israel through politics, God would have put Moses on the throne. Now back to Isaiah. Everything that Isaiah put his trust in had to be shaken so God could reveal Himself to the man of God. We live in a time right now that everything that can be shaken will be shaken so that which can not be shaken may remain. Hebrews 12:27 I was reading about the jobless rates in this country and it said that one in five men are unemployed. Many have lost their retirement, their savings are drained and they can't borrow anymore and they don't know what to do. Because of all the financial stress, couples are divorcing and others are turning to crime to support their families. The answer to all of this is not a better politician but men and women of God that set their heart to see the Lord high and lifted up. We have a mandate from heaven to know the Lord and that the world through us, the Lord may be known to them. It's not a stronger dollar we need or even a Christian politician but a people that have prayed through to God and see Him in His glory and after seeing God they hear what God is saying and then are moved to go and do the will of God in the earth. Praying through to God is the answer to all of our problems.

I See the Lord
(Mark McCoy, Andy Park)

I see the Lord and His train fills the temple

I see the Lord, He is high and lifted up

I see the Lord and His train fills the temple

I see the Lord, He is high and lifted up

Angels cry holy, holy is the Lord

Angels cry holy, holy is the Lord

I see the Lord and His eyes are flaming like fire

I see the Lord and His hair is white as snow

Angels cry holy, holy is the Lord

Angels cry holy, holy is the Lord

The angel came and touched the coal to my lips

My guilt is gone and my sin has been forgiven

And I cry holy, holy is the Lord

And I cry holy, holy is the Lord

And the temple is filled with the glory of God

And the whole earth is filled with the glory of God

He calls to me, "Whom shall I send?"

And I answer Him, "I will go for You"

And I cry holy, holy is the Lord

And I cry holy, holy is the Lord
