Jeremiah 2:13 For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water. This scripture deals with two evils. First is the forsaking the fountain of living waters. I used to be in the water line business. We would trench waterlines in the ground in rural areas in Missouri and Illinois. Sometimes we would have a leak and to find the leak I would go to the lowest places, ditches, waterways, and look for running water. I would follow that running water to the leak and then fix it. Water will always flow to the lowest place the path of least resistance. This verse tells us if living waters are not flowing in every area of our lives and something else has taken its place, this is evil. True Christianity is not being victorious only on the mountain but even in the valley. When the fountain of living water is flowing in our life, it will touch others. We can take inventory of our lives by looking at the valleys or hard places and see if the life of Christ is there or is something else. The second evil is hewed out cisterns. A cistern is a tank in the ground to store water to be used at a later time. When I was a child we used to go to grandma and grandpas house. They had a cistern with a pump. Every once in a while, this water would stink and just be nasty. Grandpa would move the big concrete lid off the cistern and look down in it and there would be a dead rat or snake in it so he would have to pour some bleach in it to kill all the nasty stuff going on in there. God is against us, the Church, storing up the life of Christ, the anointing, the Word of God, the precious Holy Spirit; anything that comes from above. This life was given to be poured out for others. Life doesn't come out of the Church but the Church comes out of Life. I read an article from Iran's Basij press claiming that the version of the gospel of Barnabas found in 2000, would prove that islam is the final and righteous religion and that this revelation will cause the collapse of Christianity around the world. In this gospel of Barnabas it says that Jesus was not crucified and He is not the Son of God. According to the press, Jesus predicted the coming of the prophet mohammad and also the coming last islamic messiah. Now, we know this is all a lie. At the turn of the twentieth century, German scholars subjected the Word of God to higher criticism. Bringing a question mark on the things of God. The Word of God stands alone and the Spirit brings life to the Word. Our Christian life must be more than an argument. There has to be a testimony of life and that testimony is that Christ is alive in me. The Holy Spirit is that life of Christ in us the Church. In Zechariah 4:2 we read about a candlestick all of gold. The candlestick represents the Church and the gold

“Most Christian organizations would like to send their workers to Bible college for five years. I would like to send our workers to hell for five minutes. That would prepare them for a lifetime of compassionate ministry.”

represents God. Zechariah saw a Church all of God. In verse 6 the Lord said its not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit. It is the Spirit of God that is life and His life must be in the Church if she is going to shake a lost world. There is a state of disorder and death and satan is connected to it. There is a state of order and life and God is connected to that. The Church without the Spirit of Life is in a state of disorder and death. The testimony of life is that life overcomes death all the time. Christ did destroy; brought to naught – rendered him, satan, utterly inoperative. That which is actual in Christ is potential in the saint as we walk in the Holy Ghost. The testimony of life renders satan inoperative in my life. In Ezekiel 47:1-5 there is a river flowing from the right side of the house at the south side of the altar. This represents Christ’s blood and water flowing from His side. In verse 3, 4 and 5 there are waters to the ankles, knees, loins and then waters to swim in. Waters to the ankles; many people want just enough of God to keep them out of jail. Waters to the knees; I see others want just enough of God to keep their marriage together or keep them from bankruptcy. Waters to the loins; maybe more of Christ than many others but not so much where we are not in control of our lives. Waters to the loins; you can still have your feet on the ground and control your destiny. But, to those that go in deep enough in waters to swim, in them, is the Spirit of life and satan has no power over them in this world. True Christianity is a testimony that life overcomes death all the time no matter the circumstances of life.

Our prayer for you and your family is the testimony of life over death in these last days. May the Lord keep you!

In Christ,

....Wise Words from the author....

Before we can speak God’s messages we must learn to listen. The opened ear comes before the opened mouth. It is very hard sometimes to die to our own thoughts and elaborate preparations for service, and to be free and open for God to use us as vessels meet for the Master’s use. Sometimes He has to humble us by showing us the barrenness of all our best intellectual work, and then lead us to receive the living messages of the Holy Spirit.
