There is no time lost in the journey when we stop to pray. In my travels around the world with the School of Christ, we deal with pastors and leaders. It is always the same with all of them. They say we don't have time to pray. If we as Christians could only understand that the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds. Prayer is our greatest weapon against the devil who is the adversary of our soul. The devil is tireless in the extreme. He will push you out of bounds and just keep coming. Through prayer the Church stops the mouth of the enemy. In Mark, Chapter 6 there is the story of Jesus feeding the five thousand with five loaves and two fish. After feeding the people, Jesus sends them home. The Lord's disciples went down unto the sea to go to the other side but Christ went into the mountain to pray. The Bible says a great wind started to blow. The disciples were rowing in the storm and after a long time they were only about two thirds of a mile out on the sea. Now if we look at this, we will see there is no time lost on the journey when we stop to pray. Christ was on the mountain praying for several hours and the disciples were in the boat working, rowing, trying to get to the other side but on the fourth watch of the night, Christ came walking on the sea. Look at the time that was spent on rowing the boat fighting the storm.

It was wasted but look at the time Christ spent praying; it was time well spent. As Jesus came walking, He was saying everything over your head is under my feet. He came to the boat and the Bible said, "And immediately the ship was at the land whither they went." We should know that we can fight the storm in our own strength or we can get on our knees and spend time with the Father and everything will come out all right. Christians that don't pray live their lives always reacting to the storm but people that pray live a life of responding to the storm by walking on top of it instead of being caught in it. Prayer is communion with God. That means, we talk to Him and He talks to us. The Word is God speaking and the Holy Ghost will quicken us according to His Word. Now our relationship with God is hinged on our prayer life. If I don't talk to my wife and commune with her it won't be long until we will have marriage problems all because I didn't talk to her. The storms of life take so many Christians out of the fight because they just do not pray. There is no time lost in this journey when we stop to pray.

Thank you for your prayers and your financial support of this ministry. May the Lord keep you and your family in these last days.

In Christ,
Pastor Ken Geisendorfer

“WATCH”

By: Warren M. Smith

Oh, the glory fast approaching, of Ascension’s happy morn,
When the watchful servants quickly to His bosom shall be borne;
When the dear ones left behind us, shall for us oft seek in vain,
But our spirits shall have risen to the Lamb for sinners slain.

Caught us in the air to meet Him, oh! The heights and depths of joy,
Lengths and breadths of love surpassing, purest bliss without alloy;
Now we see with darkened vision, then we’ll see Him face to face,
And we will, through countless ages, sing the glories of His grace.

Two shall at a mill be grinding, one be taken, one be left,
Two shall in a bed be sleeping; one of these shall be bereft;
Oh, what wonder and amazement, shall the ones on earth, possess,
They shall pass through tribulation, pain, and sorrow and distress.

We shall live with Him forever, in the sunshine of His love,
We shall meet to part, no never, with th’ angelic host above;
There we’ll hear our Father’s welcome, as He calls us, one by one,
Saying to each one in person, “Faithful servant, ‘tis well done.”

Let us, then, our lamps keep burning, and our wedding garments on,
Ready to go forth to meet Him when we hear Him say, “I come;”
There will be no time to slumber, lest He come whil’st we’re asleep,
And the door be shut between us; let us then our vigil keep.
